TO CELEBRATE A GREAT EVENT.

THE Silver Jubilee of their Majesties the King and Queen is an event that will live in the memories of all. Our regard for their Majesties will be eloquently expressed at the Jubilee celebrations, and so that the memory of those celebrations and of the King and Queen themselves may be vividly remembered, two magnificent Souvenir Volumes have been prepared. Every time they are referred to they will stir a thousand recollections. OUR KING AND QUEEN (6/-) is without question one of the most impressive Royal Biographies ever published. In the most fascinating way it presents the outstanding events in the lives of their Majesties. Edited by Sir John Hammerton, it contains the most captivating articles, nearly 500 photographic illustrations, and no fewer than 18 beautiful Full-Colour Pictures of Royal Events and portraits of the Royal Family. This, indeed, is a book to be treasured; a fitting souvenir for a very great occasion. Its companion volume, WONDERFUL LONDON (6/-), paints a faithful and revealing picture of the world's greatest capital city. There is a unique gallery of 200 photographs of London, its life, manners and modes, reproduced in photogravure. Contributors to its pages include such brilliant writers as J. B. Priestley, G. K. Chesterton, H. V. Morton, H. M. Tomlinson, Sir Philip Gibbs, Stephen Graham, Robert Lynd, Alfred Noyes, E. V. Knox and Alec Waugh.

Both of these books are charmingly bound in Royal Blue Suede Leather Cloth inset with silver, and they measure 11" x 8" and are 1 1/2" thick. A limited quantity has been published and they cannot be reprinted, so intending purchasers should inquire without delay at their Newsagent, Bookstall or Bookseller, or at any leading store.

the American Ragtime Octette played at the London Hippodrome in revue, and created a terrific sensation.

And that's how we heard Irving Berlin's
"Alexander's Ragtime Band." From then on the whole trend of popular music changed.
Ragtime hit us with a bang. The whole nation started to sing the string of songs from the States that followed the Ragtime Singers.
America had conquered us.

Remember "Everybody's Doing It," "Hitchy

time gone mad, played on tin cans and wailing saxophones. The saxophone was new then; it first made its appearance about 1916 or later.

"How Ya Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?" was one hit of that time, and "Dardanella," with its funny bass movement.

Jazz sobered up after a bit, and "I'm For Ever Blowing Bubbles" took a turn. That, as a matter of fact, was the last song which sold a million copies in this country. "Beautiful Ohio," "Old-fashioned Mother of Mine," "Whis-

1921.
